EAPC

The Employee Assistance Program offers free, professional, confidential short-term and telemental health counseling, and referrals for a broad range of issues.

Telemental Health

Private video visit with a therapist from home, at work or on the go!

The EAPC is staffed by licensed clinical social workers and consulting psychiatrists. We offer individual, couples and family counseling, and referrals for longer-term and specialized treatment and community-based services.

The EAPC staff can assist you with both everyday problems and crisis situations. We can help you understand and address:

- Work and school challenges
- Relationship and family problems
- Stress and anger management
- Grief and loss
- Domestic violence
- Alcoholism and substance abuse
- Parenting concerns
- Eating disorders and body image issues
- Coping with illness and health concerns
- Legal and financial referrals
- Personal growth and well-being
- Coping with traumatic events

Our Policy

The EAPC will protect your confidentiality. The purpose of an employee assistance program is to give employees the opportunity to help themselves cope with problems which are adversely affecting them. Employee confidence in the trustworthiness of the EAPC staff plays a key role in the program's success.

Your EAPC serves employees, spouses, partners and family members of:

- Hospital for Special Surgery
- Weill Cornell Medicine
- The Rogosin Institute

We have an on call service for urgent after hour matters. Call: (212) 746-5890.

For psychiatric emergencies, please call 911 or go to nearest emergency room.
