

Research Instructor or Assistant Professor Division of Gastroenterology & Hepatology

Academic Position Summary:

- The Division of Gastroenterology & Hepatology in the Weill Department of Medicine at NewYork-Presbyterian/Weill Cornell Medical Center is seeking an individual needed to perform full time research and animal surgeries that will support the newly created laboratory. Research will be investigating immunity, inflammation and tumorigenesis in the gastrointestinal tract. The Division is recognized nationally for providing advanced clinical care, conducting pioneering research, offering unique teaching opportunities, and demonstrating commitment to improve the health status of the community we serve. Clinician educators are sought at all career levels; we offer protected time to pursue academic interests in teaching, policy, advocacy and research for highly qualified candidates.
- Weill Cornell Medicine (WCM) is the medical school of Cornell University. Faculty members have clinical appointments at NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital (NYPH), one of the largest and most comprehensive academic medical centers in the nation and one of New York City's top-ranked hospitals.

Academic Responsibilities:

- Successful post-training candidates will have evidence of a strong, local reputation in their research field.

Medical Education Requirements:

- Individuals recommended for appointments eligible for review for tenure in most instances will have an M.D., Ph.D., or other applicable terminal degree.
- Candidates must maintain an M.D or comparable foreign medical degree

Academic Appointment Requirements:

- Academic rank of Instructor in Medicine typically includes 1-3 years of academic experience. Assistant Professor of Medicine typically includes 4-6 years of academic experience with first author scholarship related to the clinical field and teaching.

Compensation and Benefits:

- We offer highly competitive and excellent benefits, including 403B, CME, malpractice including tail coverage, LTD and life insurance, and tuition reimbursement for qualified employees and dependents.
- Rank commensurate with experience.
- Salary ranges, not including bonuses, administrative supplement for specific director roles, and clinical incentive compensation of benefits:

Research Instructor: $120,000-$177,000

Assistant Professor: $153,000-229,000

Weill Cornell Medicine provides the above salary ranges in compliance with the New York City law on Salary Transparency in Job Advertisements. The salaries listed are for full-time employment, not including bonuses, clinical incentive compensation, or benefits. Actual salaries depend on a variety of factors including but not limited to experience, internal equity, specialty, training, and hospital/community needs. The salary ranges for New York City based roles represent WCM's good faith and reasonable estimate of possible compensation at the time of posting.
