Academic Appointment Requirements:

- Assistant Professor of Medicine with 4-6 years of academic experience and scholarship or successful post-training candidates will have evidence of a strong, local reputation in the clinical field of pulmonary and critical care medicine, with a leadership and/or key role in activities that include practice, such as approaches to diagnosis; treatment or prevention of disease.

Clinical Appointment Requirements:

- Appointment as an Assistant Attending Physician of NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital (NYPH) will be contingent upon approval of the WCM academic appointment. Hospital attending and/or consultation privileges will be limited to WCM and NewYork-

Presbyterian Lower Manhattan Hospital, unless agreed to in writing by the Medical College Dean.

Professional Licenses and Certifications:

- A valid New York State medical license, DEA license, board certification, and all applicable certification and/or credentialing specific to the medical specialty; must meet the qualifications to enroll and participate in all third-party payer insurance plan credentialing.

Competencies:

- Must remain compliant with all WCM and NYPH initiatives, including completion of the WCM academic annual self- assessment, and completion of NYPH's annual and professional peer evaluation.

Compensation and Benefits:

- We offer highly competitive and excellent benefits, including 403B, malpractice including tail coverage, LTD and life insurance, and tuition reimbursement for qualified employees and dependents.
- Rank commensurate with experience.
- Salary ranges, not including bonuses, administrative supplement for specific director roles, and clinical incentive compensation of benefits:

Assistant Professors: $225,000 - $270,000

Sessional: Rates vary depending on shift type worked

Weill Cornell Medicine provides the above salary ranges in compliance with the New York City law on Salary Transparency in Job Advertisements. The salaries listed are for full-time employment, not including bonuses, clinical incentive compensation, or benefits. Actual salaries depend on a variety of factors including but not limited to experience, internal equity, specialty, training, and hospital/community needs. The salary ranges for New York City based roles represent WCM's good faith and reasonable estimate of possible compensation at the time of posting.
